GREENWICH SKATEPARK RULES AND REGULATIONS

Skaters and Riders are expected to follow the rules, and any directions given by Skatepark Staff. Failure to do so may result in the loss of skating/riding privileges. NO REFUNDS will be given.

Skatepark can only be used when a monitor is on site.

1. The Skatepark is open to skateboarders, inline skaters, and scooter riders at designated times only.
2. All skaters/riders must sign in with attendant and pay appropriate fees before skating or riding. Daily and monthly fees are paid online only at www.greenwichct.gov/webtrac.
3. All skaters/riders must sign Waiver/Release forms. Minors must have a parent or guardian sign.
4. All skaters/riders assume risk of injury. The Town of Greenwich and its agents are not responsible for any injuries.
5. Skaters/riders must wear proper safety equipment, including but not limited to, helmets, knee and elbow pads. Wrist guards are optional for intermediate and advanced skaters. Wrist guards are mandatory for beginner boarders.
6. No trespassing after Park hours. There is no skating when attendant is not on duty.
7. No littering. Please use trash and recycling containers.
8. Do not use ramps or obstacles that are beyond your ability level.
9. No food or beverages in the skating area.
10. Skaters/riders must be at least 5 years old. Skaters/riders under 10 years of age must be accompanied by someone 18 years of age or older.
11. No climbing on the fence.
12. No alcohol, smoking, drugs, foul language, inappropriate behavior, glass containers, or loud music.
13. Shirts required at all times.
